

Internship Opportunity at Sales Department (Sales & Marketing)

Highlights of the Internship Role:

By participating in sales marketing activities within the Sales Department, the intern will gain exposure to real estate marketing techniques, high-end residential project positioning, and sales-related documentation. The internship also enhances communication, coordination, and presentation skills through hands-on tasks and project reflections.

- Sales Marketing Insights: Gain foundational understanding of luxury property sales, branding considerations, and market positioning strategies.
- Project Coordination Support: Assist with day-to-day coordination tasks, information consolidation, and cross-team communication related to sales campaigns.

Requirements:

- University Student in any discipline, with basic exposure to property-related concepts through coursework or projects.
- Strong communication and teamwork skills, with the ability to collaborate effectively in a sales and marketing environment.
- Willingness to learn, take initiative, and contribute proactively to assigned tasks.
- Related part-time work, volunteering, or extracurricular experience that demonstrates communication or teamwork will be viewed favorably.
